PROVIDING CAMP AND RETREAT FACILITIES FOR CHRISTIAN ORGANIZATIONS

THE HISTORY OF CAMP SUMMERS & MANGET

In 1944, Mr. and Mrs. David Keene Summers donated 75 acres of land to the Eastern Conference of the Southern Methodist Church for the purpose of creating the camp ministry. The Summers realized the importance of children's ministries and while the camp has grown much since its establishment, it continues to touch the lives of children every year.

WHAT SUMMERS & MANGET HAS TO OFFER YOU

Although the Southern Methodist Church uses the facility for its own camp for a month in the summer, it is available for rent throughout the year. With eleven buildings and a total capacity of 120, Camp Summers & Manget is perfect for organizations seeking a large facility to plan their retreats, family reunions or other activities.

The buildings include six cabins as well as a director's cabin and handicap cabin, a dining hall, recreation hall, and a tabernacle with the maximum capacity of 300.

Cabins

In total, there are eight cabins with the average capacity of twenty persons. On average, there are approximately ten bunk beds with an average of three showers per cabin. Each cabin is also equipped with its own heating and air conditioning unit. Special cabins include two duplexes—a director's cabin and a handicap accessible cabin.

Six out of our eight cabins will sleep 20 persons.

Dining Hall

The dining hall is equipped with a full kitchen with a walk-in cooler and ice machine and has the available capacity of 120 people.

Recreation Hall

The recreation hall is equipped with a pool table, ping-pong tables, air hockey tables, foosball tables, and carpet ball tables, which will provide fun for the whole family.

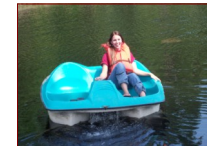

The Patty Johnston
Memorial Tabernacle

Tabernacle

The chapel or Tabernacle has the maximum capacity of 300 people and is equipped with a piano and organ.

RECREATION

Along with the Recreation Hall, Camp Summers & Manget has several recreation activities available for the whole family which include: a pool, a pond with paddle boats and waterslide, volleyball court, and basketball courts.

Paddle boating is one of the many activities available at Camp S&M.
